THE URGENCY OF TRUTH IN DISCIPLING A NEW-NORMAL WORLD

welcome to IDC2021!

Dearest CCF family, friends and guests,

Warmest of welcomes to IDC 2021, our first-ever purely online discipleship conference broadcasted all around the world!

As 2021 dawns on us, we look back at an unprecedented time in our generation when life went into lockdown. Governments scrambled to find solutions to a health pandemic that brought even the world's best economies into deep recession. People of all walks of life lost loved ones and livelihood.

The world had a rude awakening that no earthly power or knowledge is big enough to control what happens in life. So many needed to hear messages of hope, healing and heaven in the midst of suffering and death.

As a church, we seized boundless opportunities to proclaim Christ to people of all nations. Using technology and the internet, we connected with friends and family with prayer and the gospel. We learned more what "church" really meant, the fellowship of believers on a mission, not confined to hearing sermons in a building. Amazingly, our online worship services and Dgroup meetings had hundreds of thousands of views and engagements on social media.

IDC 2021 seeks to promote the urgency of proclaiming God's truth in our new-normal world. While we cannot be physically present with one another, we trust that we are united in purpose in re-thinking and retooling our discipleship and evangelism to maximize boundless opportunities in 2021 and beyond.

God bless you and we pray that you will be filled with much joy and hope as we participate in IDC 2021 Discipleship in the New Normal.

In His Service,

Peter Tan-chi
CCF Senior Pastor

Focuses on _____	Focuses on _____
Focuses on _____	Focuses on _____

- Even though we have the tools of apologetics within evangelism, _____ must be fundamental.

- a. Incorporating discipleship into the integration of apologetics within evangelism

4R's

b. R_____ in Christ.

c. R_____ in Christ.

Jeremiah 6:16; Matthew 11:28-30

a. The result of this kind of mourning is that “we will be comforted”.
Psalm 103:14; John 15:5; Philippians 4:13; 2:13

b. True freedom is not really the ability to do otherwise.
The Train Analogy

c. True freedom always implies some kind of _____.

a. “Being ready” means to anticipate nonbelievers’ _____.

eagerness to share the truth of what we believe.”
- Norm Geisler*

1 Peter 3:15

b. The responsibility to remove obstacles on the path to the

_____.

c. Being ready in our world means cultivating _____.

d. What kinds of Apologetics should we know?

1. Lite apologetics.

2. Domino principle.

3. Remember that Jesus provides the only hope for mankind.

e. R_____ the lost around us.

Matthew 5:14-16

*“When we are rooted and rested,
then we can more effectively be ready to reach the lost around us.”*
- David Geisler

To effectively reach we must practice a 3-Dimensional Discipleship

- a. 1st Dimension: We need to change our approach to care more about winning the _____ than winning the _____.

- b. 2nd Dimension: We need to use classical apologetics in our evangelism to build a stronger case for Christianity in an increasingly _____.
 - 1. We need more than just an _____ approach.
 - 2. We have to close the door on allowing people to consider the Creator of the Universe is anything other than a _____ God.

- c. 3rd Dimension: We need to remember that there is a _____ for their souls that may make it hard for them to understand, yet there is also the power of God to reach them.

closing

- These 4 R's are a comprehensive practice for living a Christ-first life.
- There is a spiritual component in reaching people that involves more than just speaking in a way for them to hear the truth...it also involves how we live our life to a watching world. It's the apologetic of our life that combined with the right approach and the right tools can make our apologetic three-dimensional.
- You may not feel qualified to do what God has called you to do; but if God has called you to be a witness, He will empower you to be a witness. We just need to be obedient to his calling.

THE 4Rs

1 Rooted ... in Christ

“I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.” John 15:5 ESV

“The mandate must proceed the mission” - EDMUND CHAN

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.”
Matthew 5:3-4 ESV

2 Rested ... in Christ

“Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.” Matthew 11:28-30 ESV

3 Ready ... to give an answer

“But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear;” 1 Peter 3:15 NKJV

4 Reaching ... the lost around us

“You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven”

Matthew 5:14-16 ESV

COVID-19 has been posing unprecedented challenges and has become a crisis of multiple aspects: human, economic, and social. All of us feel the debilitating effect of lockdowns, economic downturns, and social isolation — from overeating, oversleeping, and anxiety, to long-term consequences within families and individuals.* As we all pray and wait for a vaccine, we must not neglect the other aspects of our well-being. Is there a better way to manage stress, and a realistic way to stay healthy physically, mentally and emotionally in the new normal?

WINNING AT WORK AND FAMILY IN THE NEW NORMAL

ptr. danny perez, ptr. joey geronimo, ptr. ryan escobar, and john sola

Statistics show that there are 2.2 million Filipinos at work overseas, all over the world.* And though their working conditions and family situations may be far from ideal, God may have a higher purpose for such diaspora: our OFWs may be our nation's greatest contribution to world missions. What can we intentionally do as a church to bring them in to become believers, involve them as God's workers, and equip them to become His messengers throughout the world?

Without a doubt, the pandemic has upended our normal family life. We had to re-configure our life activities within the limited confines of our homes, so avoiding or running away from problems at home is harder to do. Relationships have been either strained, strengthened, or both! Is it possible for families to not only survive but thrive in the new normal? How do we safeguard the quality and health of our relationships in our “one-stop shop” homes?

They are most available and active, free to go where the need is greater. But now, with everyone caught on lockdown and with the mission field completely different, what new opportunities are there for them to serve God and others? How can the church help singles continue to fulfill their purpose and discover the meaning of life in this season of social distancing, digital interaction, and social media dependence?
